FROM:                Katie Maloney, Director, MIT Parents Association

SUBJECT:             Final Exams CARE Packages

In response to a common parent request, the MIT Parents Association is now working with On Campus Marketing to make it easy for parents to send their students a much needed pick-me-up just before exams.

Let your student know you’re thinking of them with one of the Care Package options below. A generous selection of tasty treats delivered to your student on- or off-campus is always appreciated, and you can add a personal note to express your encouragement.

To order:
1) Write your note of encouragement on the back of the greeting card.
2) Fill out the front of the greeting card and order form below and mail them in the return envelope provided.
3) Place in the mail by April 29.
(Your package will arrive on or before May 18—just in time for exams!)

The MIT Infinite Care Package is the recommended option for MIT students. This is the biggest and best Care Package, featuring wholesome and high energy snacks.

The Fruit Basket Pack will nourish your hard working student with fresh healthy fruit and energy sustaining treats that will satisfy even the hungriest of late night cravings. Wholesome snacks chosen for lower counts of carbs and fats sharpen the senses and enhance study and exam concentration. A most appreciated gift, all packed in a recyclable, decorative box.
