Crater Lake & Rouge River Rafting
July 29-August 5, 2012
Experience the beauty of the Pacific Northwest and the beautiful Rogue River this summer with the MIT Alumni Travel Program. Explore the river from its headwaters near Crater Lake to the Oregon coastline. Choose to hike or raft from one campsite to the next. Hikes are five to 10 miles long and expert guides lead each day's expedition and share information on the local human and natural history. Reconnect with Mother Nature and sink into the simple rhythm and joy of life on the river!

Olesnavage wins 2012 Dean A. Horn Award
Mechanical engineering student Katy Olesnavage '12 was awarded the 2012 Dean A. Horn Award for Undergraduate Study in Marine Research from the MIT Sea Grant College. Olesnavage was nominated for her senior thesis, "The Design and Testing of a Procedure to Locate Fresh Submarine Groundwater Discharge in Cyprus." Her work is supported by the MIT Sea Grant, the MIT Energy Initiative, and the Cyprus Research Promotion Foundation. In addition to the award, Olesnavage laid the groundwork for future research that could have a long-lasting impact on the Cyprus region.
